

MSVUFA Strike Emergency Loan Application

Members who are in a financial emergency situation caused by the strike (e.g. loan payments or child care that cannot be covered by cash reserves) are eligible to apply for an interest-free emergency loan from Mount Saint Vincent University Faculty Association. Applications for an emergency loan must be in writing by email to Susie Brigham (susan.brigham@msvufa.ca) and Svenja Huntemann (svenja.huntemann@msvufa.ca) using this emergency loan form. Please fill out the following fields in application for a strike emergency loan from the MSVUFA.

Name:

Address:

1. Loan amount requested (maximum is your typical net bi-weekly pay less strike pay)
2. Amount of your usual net bi-weekly pay from MSVU
3. Reason for the loan and why it is an emergency:

Applications are confidential and will be processed within two business days. Members will be notified by email regarding the approval of their individual requests.

I acknowledge that loan repayments are expected within one month of the first full pay day by MSVU and can be done by cheque or e-transfer (msvufa@msvu.ca)
